

Hope Lodge®

As part of the Society's mission to save lives and relieve suffering from cancer, it seeks to raise $19.2 million to construct and operate Hope Lodge Jacksonville, a residence that will provide lodging at no cost to cancer patients visiting the Greater Jacksonville area.

Some of the amenities of the American Cancer Society's Hope Lodge Jacksonville will include:

- 32 patient suites, each with a private bath and television
- Shared kitchen and dining spaces
- Help-yourself pantry/pots and pans
- Daily access to fresh linens and laundry facilities
- A resource library with an Internet computer station
- Family recreation rooms with chairs, sofas and television
- Outdoor patio area and healing garden
- Free on-site, easily accessible garage and surface parking
- Free daily transportation to and from treatment centers

Located on the Mayo Clinic campus in Jacksonville. Richard M. Schulze Family Foundation Hope Lodge Jacksonville will serve patients seeking cancer treatment at any cancer center in the Jacksonville area.

Name A Court For A Loved One: $100

We've all been touched by Cancer. Another way to contribute to the tournament cause is to dedicate a court to a loved one. The dedication can be made to honor someone who is fighting or has successfully fought cancer. You may also dedicate in memoriam of a loved one.
